Georgena was born on March 14, 1925 in Glendive, the daughter of George and Ora (Sloan) Smith. She was raised and educated in Glendive where she graduated from Dawson County High School with the class of 1942. After graduation, she attended college for two years at the St. Katherine's University in St. Paul, Minnesota and then moved to Missoula, Montana where she attended two more years of college at the University of Montana furthering her education to become a teacher. Georgena came back to Glendive to take care of her mother. She married Emil Knoll on May 12, 1947 in Glendive and to this union six children were born. Georgena never became a teacher as she decided to stay home and raise her six children. Georgena was a member of the Catholic Daughters of the America's and Council of Catholic Women. She enjoyed crossword puzzles, reading, gardening, embroidering and watching her favorite television show, "Keeping Up Appearances." Georgena was preceded in death by her parents, George and Ora Smith; her husband, Emil in 1999 and two grandsons, Chad and David. Survivors include her three daughters, Carole (Eldon) Wielgosh, Patty (Steve) Lee and Bernie Knoll (George Johnson) all of Glendive; three sons, Gordon (Masha) Knoll, Duane (Teresa) Knoll and Dennis (Jody) Knoll all of Glendive; fourteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.
