Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Friday, July 15, 2011 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Beach, North Dakota with Pastor Scott Hojnacki officiating. Interment will be held in the Beach Lutheran Cemetery in Beach. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Beach has been entrusted with arrangements. Geraldine was born on February 20, 1927 in Beach, the daughter of Ferdinand and Edith (Schallock) Schmeling. She was raised ten miles east of Golva where she attended rural schools until the ninth grade, when she then attended Beach High School. Geraldine married Gregory Maus on April 3, 1948 in Glendive, Montana. Geraldine worked at the post office in Golva, Beach and Medora, North Dakota for many years. She painted and refinished furniture, cleaned houses for women in the area, milked cows and was an accomplished carpenter. She cooked at the Golden Valley Manor, in Beach, for several years. Geraldine worked with her children, first at Beach Bakery in the 1970's and later at Prairie Lumber in Golva. She was a hard worker and talented woman. Geraldine was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Lutheran Women's Missionary League, the Altar Guild and the Happy Valley Homemakers Club. Geraldine loved watching basketball, especially when her grandchildren were playing. She enjoyed going to Deadwood on the bus and meeting new people. Geraldine displayed her talents in the many pictures she painted. Geraldine was preceded in death by her husband, Gregory Maus; her parents; her brothers, Louis, Volney, John, Delton, Gordon, and Max Schmeling; and a grandson, Leon Maus. Survivors include her son, Gary (Brenda) Maus of Golva; her daughter, Gwenda (Alan) Miller of Beach; her sister, Audrey (Earl) Northrop of Eagle Point, Oregon; her sisters-in-law, Violet, Agnes, Carol, and Esther, Schmeling, and Lorna Maus; brother-in-law, Minard Maus; Granddaughters, Angie Miller, Stephanie Anderson, Alysia Steele, Nicole Davidson; grandson, Grant Maus; and twelve great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.
