

Gladys Wojahn

August 19, 1916 - February 9, 2007

Gladys May Wojahn, age 90, of Dickinson, North Dakota, formerly of Beach, North Dakota, died on Friday, February 2, 2007 at St. Luke's Nursing Home in Dickinson. Funeral Services will be held at 2:00 P.M. Friday, February 9, 2007 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Beach with Rev. Scott Hojnacki officiating. Interment will follow services at the Beach Lutheran Cemetery. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Beach is entrusted with arrangements. Gladys was born August 19, 1916 in Wibaux county, Montana, the daughter of Morgan Powell and Anna (Jensen) Griffith. She was raised in Wibaux county and educated in Wibaux county schools graduating from Wibaux County High School. Gladys was married to Adolph Wojahn on September 17, 1935 in Beach. After their marriage they lived at various places in Wibaux county. They later moved to Beach where they raised their family. Gladys and her husband moved to a farm north of Beach in 1973 where she lived until moving into Beach. In her later years she lived in Dickinson and moved into St. Luke's Nursing Home in 1999. Gladys was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Beach and the LWML. She was a member of the home makers club and enjoyed quilting, gardening, playing cards, reading and watching Jeopardy. Gladys was a family oriented person and enjoyed being with them. She was a helpmate to her husband. Gladys was preceded in death by her husband, Adolph; her parents, four brothers, one sister, one step grand child and one great grandson. She is survived by a daughter, Betty Brown of Plains, Montana; son, Lauren Wojahn and his wife Mary Ann of Dickinson, North Dakota; son, David Wojahn and his wife Leota of Kansas City Missouri; daughter, Linda Gilman and her husband Mac of San Antonio, Texas; daughter, Midge Kuntz of Dickinson, North Dakota; son Kevin Wojahn and his wife Lavonne of Dickinson, North Dakota; one brother, Russell Griffith and his wife Peggy of Missoula, Montana and sister-in-law, Donna Griffith of Livingston, Montana.

Tribute Wall

“ Gladys Wojahn

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM