

Harvey Glenn Minks

March 31, 1927 - July 19, 2017

Harvey was born on March 31, 1927 in Onamia, Minnesota to Herman and Lena (Kaufert) Minks. He received his education in Onamia schools, graduating with the class of 1945.

While living in Billings, Montana Harvey met his future wife, Pauline McNaire, at a restaurant where she cooked. The couple married on September 15, 1953 in Spokane, Washington. After their marriage, they moved to Marsh, Montana where Harvey worked for the railroad. In December of 1953, they moved to Sentinel Butte where they lived until 1955, when they moved back to Marsh. In December of 1958, they moved to Golva, North Dakota and lived there until 1961. In June of 1961, they bought a home in Sentinel Butte and Harvey resided there until moving to the Valley Eldercare Center in Grand Forks.

Harvey was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Beach and he loved everything pertaining to the railroad since he had worked for the railroad for over forty years. Harvey also enjoyed having coffee every morning with his friends at Flying J in Beach or Olson's Service Station in Sentinel Butte.

Harvey was preceded in death by his wife, Pauline; his daughter, Sandra Creamer and his parents, Herman and Lisa.

Harvey is survived by his son, David Minks of Grand Forks; two grandsons and one granddaughter.
