

Helen A. Miller

April 29, 1919 - March 26, 2008

Helen A. Miller, age 88, of Glendive, passed away on Friday, March 21, 2008 at the Glendive Medical Center. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Wednesday, March 26, 2008 in Our Savior Lutheran Church of Glendive with Pastor James Hageman officiating. Interment will be in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Helen was born on April 29, 1919 in Lowry, South Dakota, the daughter of Christian and Christina (Roesler) Huber. She moved to Montana with her family to a farm in the Cracker Box area near Glendive. She received 8 years of education at the Amo School in rural Dawson County. She was united in marriage to Edwin W. Miller on July 27, 1941 at the Trinity Lutheran Church on Cracker Box Route, west of Glendive. Helen and her husband operated a Dairy Farm ½ mile east of Trinity Lutheran Church, where they consistently milked 60 or more cows. They also raised sweet corn and garden produce which was sold to local grocers in the Glendive area. Helen's husband preceded her in death in December of 1972. Following her husband's death, Helen resided in Glendive until the time of her death. She had been a resident of the Grandview Retirement Apartments in Glendive since 1999. Helen was a local legend for her baking and babysitting in the Glendive area. She enjoyed fishing and loved to play cards (not necessarily by the rules) and was always known for her quick wit. Helen was a woman who looked forward to each and every day and greeted each day with a positive attitude. She was preceded in death by her parents, a son and daughter-in-law, Raymond and his wife Pat in 1970 and 10 older brothers and sisters. Survivors include her sons, Bruce Miller of Glendive and Rick Miller and his wife Gina of Colville, Washington and six grandchildren.
