“ The Weiss Family,

I am so sorry for the loss of you mother. I sit and remember the times my family was either at your house by the baseball field or you guys were at out house. I remember listening to your dad and my dad talking German on the phone. Ida told Al and my father that they were worse then two old ladies. They would talk to each other 3 or 4 times a day on the phone and gossip. Ida told them when she and my mother talked they could not gripe. It was some wonderful memories to cherish. Now they can all see each other again. Again you have our deepest sympathy for your loss. God Bless you all.
