Glendive, Montana: Jack Sims Engle, age 85, passed away Wednesday, February 9, 2011 at the Eastern Montana Veterans Center in Glendive, one month from his 65th wedding anniversary. Visitation will be held from 1:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M. and 6:00 P.M. until 8:00 P.M. on Friday, February 11, 2011 at Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home in Glendive. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M. on Saturday, February 12, 2011 in the chapel of the Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home in Glendive with Reverend Avis Anderson officiating. Interment with military honors will be held in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Jack was born on December 30, 1925 in Rock Springs, Wyoming, the son of Jesse I. and Estella M. (Sims) Engle. He lived at the family dairy farm in the Farson, Wyoming area; graduating from High School in 1943. It was at the end of 1943 when he moved with his family to their ranch home located near the Yellowstone River, south of Glendive. He also met his future wife, Elsie May Leach toward the end of 1943. Jack joined the United States Marine Corp in 1945 and was stationed at Mare Island near San Francisco, California. Elsie and Jack were married in San Francisco on March 9, 1946. Upon his discharge in October of 1946, Jack and Elsie returned to Glendive and made their home at the family ranch and later moved into Glendive. Jack worked as a truck driver for many years and ended his working career at the ranch. Jack is preceded in death by his parents, Jessie and Estella; and a brother, Jesse Engle, Jr. He is survived by his wife, Elsie, of

Glendive; daughters, Juanita (Robert) Kinney, of Glendive; Toni (Jim) Peterson, of La Barge, Wyoming; and Helen (Delon) Boeckel, of Glendive; seven grand children; nine great grandchildren; and one great great granddaughter. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Glendive Hospice Care. Remembrances and condolence may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com
