

Jack Tyler

August 4, 1946 - January 10, 2014

Jack Tyler, age 67, of Sidney, Montana passed away on Friday, January 10, 2014 at the Eastern Montana Veterans Home in Glendive, Montana. Per Jack's wishes cremation has taken place and no services will be held at this time. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Jack was born on August 4, 1946 a son of Harold and Jean (Hendrickson) Tyler in Scobey, Montana. He was raised and educated in Flaxville, Montana attending Flaxville High School. As a young man Jack worked on various farms in the Scobey area until he joined the United States Army in 1965 and served for two years until his honorable discharge in 1967. After his military service Jack returned to Montana and went to work in the Logging Industry in western Montana. Jack eventually moved back to eastern Montana to Sidney where he had worked in the oil field until his health forced him to retire. Jack loved agate hunting, fishing and hunting with his family. He enjoyed tinkering with odds and ends in his garage and fixing old cars. He was a Jack of all trades, one way or another he would find a way to fix whatever was broken. He was preceded in death by his parents; his son Bill; and numerous siblings. Survivors include his son, Loni Tyler of Sidney; his granddaughter, Hanna Tyler of Sidney; his special friend Shary Thiel of Sidney and numerous nieces and nephews. Memorials may be made in Jack's name to the charity of one's choice. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com.
