

Janice J. Gaub

November 3, 1933 - September 11, 2007

Janice J. Gaub, age 73, of Glendive, passed away on Tuesday, September 11, 2007 at her home in Glendive. A remembrance gathering for family and friends will be held from 1:00 P.M. until 3:00 P.M., on Saturday, September 15, 2007 at Janice's home, 1105 N. Meade Avenue in Glendive. Interment will be in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Janice was born on November 3, 1933 in Glendive, the daughter of Loyal and Adah (Comstock) Sommer. She was united in marriage to Arthur Gaub in November of 1949 in Glendive. Janice and her husband resided in Glendive where Janice retired from Eastmont Human Services Center after many years of caring for people with special needs. While at Eastmont, she worked tirelessly for the welfare of those she served. Even at the time of her passing, Janice still received letters from some whom she had cared. For Janice, family meant everything and as such she was the center of her family's life as well. From raising three boys and seeing her nieces, nephews and grandsons grow and raise families of their own, Janice devoted all that she was into her family. Because of her dedication to her family, she had little time for herself or for hobbies. Her greatest enjoyment in life was her family and friends. Janice did, however, love the challenge of a good crossword puzzle! Her home and her life brought joy to all that knew her. From Sunday dinners, holidays or just to drop by for a quick homemade treat, Janice was always there to share and visit. Her life's testament is seen in the sadness of her passing by those who knew her and the remarkable love she had of those around her. Her impact on so many different lives is immeasurable. Janice was preceded in death by her husband Arthur Gaub, her brother, Robert D. Sommers and her sister, Mary Borg. Survivors include her sons, Robert Gaub and his wife Debbie of Great Falls, Montana, Gary Gaub and his wife Paula of Glendive and Mike Gaub and his wife Misti of Billings, Montana; her sister, Marlene Featherstone and her husband Jim of Glendive; grandchildren, Steve Gaub and his wife Juli and their sons, Dylan and Grant of Longmont, Colorado and Chris Gaub and his wife Melissa and their children, Dawson and Kaitlyn of Anchorage, Alaska; nieces and nephews and their families, Linn and Annette Borg of Glendive, Darrell and Jan Borg of Rapid City, South Dakota, Linda McEntire of Casper, Wyoming, Laurel Ross of Afton, Minnesota and Lori Bouchard of Glendive.
