“ Carney family: We were saddened to read about the ‘great loss’ of Jean and want to express our heartfelt condolences. As family and friends comfort one another in the days to come, think about seeing her in a youthful world, full of happiness, doing all the things she loved, and where sorrow and pain will be a thing of the past. May the peace of God be with you during this difficult time.

“ Dear Cousins,
What a loss of my “dancing “ cousin for a long time from our youth, her wedding, trips to Seattle and celebrating her 60th in Florida. Wish I knew how to send a photo I saw yesterday with the 3 of us standing by the convertible we rented for the celebrations. The 3 Dalsasso “girls” were a fun loving team and Jean will be missed but we'll toast her whenever we are together. My Seattle friends send their condolences as they remember all the fun times when she visited. Hugs to all of you during these days of sadness and adjustment.

“ Years ago; Dick and Jean and Judy and I traveled to Europe. We stumbled across a grave marker with the name "Asso Basso". Jean got a kick out of the name and so did I. From then on we greeted each other with "Mr.Basso" or Mrs. Basso. Gosh, are we ever gonna miss Mrs. Basso, Love to you and your family, Dick.

“ *Dick, Pat, Bob, Terry,
Whether it was on a sail boat on Flathead lake or sailboat at Bitters End in the Virgin Island Jean was a delight to around. She provided many meals and put me up in Bob's bedroom many times over the years on River Avenue. The photo that she took in the Virgin Islands of the sunset, I look at daily as it hangs 8' across from my desk.*

genuine consolation in the days ahead.*

“ Barb and I have some Great memories of Jean. As Dick and Jeans next door neighbors for numerous years after buying my parents home on River Ave. and Mom and Dad before us. The sweetest Lady anyone could hope to know. We had coffee on a regular basis, and worked on our yards together. Funny, Smart, tenacious and loyal. A more caring and loyal Mother would be impossible to find. You will be missed terribly by anyone who really knew you. Rest in peace MMM.

Dick, Bob, Terry and Pat let your love and many memories comfort you in your time of sorrow.
