Jack was born on November 13, 1933 in Sidney, Montana, the son of Herbert and Bertha (Thornton) LeSueur. He was raised and educated in Sidney, Montana and graduated from Sidney High School with the class of 1952. Jack entered into the U.S. Army in July of 1952 and served as a paratrooper until December of 1955 when he was honorably discharged. Following his discharge, he moved to Glendive where he was employed in the oil field. Jack worked for the Northern Pacific Railroad in 1956 and 1957. He married Arlene Holzworth on December 29, 1957 in Glendive. Following their marriage, Jack and his wife made their home in Sidney, where Jack was employed as a truck driver for Farmer's Union/Cenex. They moved to Glendive in 1976 where Jack worked as a dispatcher for Cenex, Western Crude/Getty Oil and Texaco in Sidney, until he retired in July of 1998. Jack was a member of the American Legion, and Disabled American Veterans. Jack loved the country lifestyle, his horses, cows, and even his goats. He also enjoyed rodeos and horse shows, attending them whenever he could, and whenever there was anything to do on his blue Ford tractor, that's where he could be found. Jack was preceded in death by his parents. Jack is survived by his wife Arlene of Glendive; four sons, Kelly LeSueur and his wife Bonnie and their children Jenni and Alex of Billings, Montana; Kerwin LeSueur and his wife Theresia "Terri" and their children, Caylah and Marissa of Helena, Montana, Leon LeSueur and his children Tressa, Kylie and John Richard "J.R." of Dickinson, North Dakota, Kevin LeSueur and his children Seth and Lauren of Glendive; one daughter, Leah LeSueur of Glendive; one brother, Herbert LeSueur and his wife Billie of Klamath Falls, Oregon; three sisters, Elsie Minifie and her husband Darryl of Kerrville, Texas, Ester Volden of Miles City, Montana and Mary Jane Melton of Sheridan, Wyoming; his mother-in-law, Martha Holzworth of Glendive.
