Joe was born on November 17, 1954 in Glendive to his parents Michael and Dorothy (Heart) Geiger. He was raised and educated in Glendive, attending Sacred Heart School and later Dawson County High School before he enlisted in the United States Army at the age of 17. Joe served three and half years in the army, he was mainly stationed in Germany before he received his honorable discharge with an SP5 rank. After the army, he returned to Glendive where he roughnecked in the oilfields for a while and did some welding before he started his trucking career. Joe was an avid reader; he was always reading books in his spare time trying to gain as much knowledge as he could. He loved living in the country, he enjoyed the open skies and the quietness that came from being out of town. Joe liked animals, telling stories and jokes and could visit with anyone. Joe loved kids, especially all of his nieces and nephews, who he treated as if they were his own kids.

He was preceded in death by his parents and an infant sister, Margaret Mary.
