

Josephine "Jo" Smith

February 23, 1937 - September 24, 2020

Josephine Smith, 83, of Glendive, MT passed away on September 24, 2020. Cremation with Memorial Services to follow will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday September 29, 2020 at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Glendive with Pastor Greg Lucido officiating.

Jo, as she was known, was born in Corvallis, MT to the late Primo and EuLaLia Suarez. She was raised and educated in Corvallis here she graduated in 1955. She met the love of her life Bruce Smith and they were married on May 25, 1958 in Hamilton, MT. They had 62 wonderful years together. They lived in Hamilton, MT, Missoula, MT, and Polson, MT before finally settling down in Glendive, MT in 1969. While in Polson, she worked at the hospital. In Glendive she was employed at Buttrey's Food for 20 years. After leaving there she went to work for CCM at Our Savior Lutheran Church cooking.

Jo was a devoted wife, loving mother and caring friend. She was very talented and kept busy with wood working, crocheting, embroidering, sewing, gardening and baking. You could always see her crafts and baked goods at the Zonta which she participated in for many years. She enjoyed spending her Thursdays with her sewing ladies at Creusa's.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Primo & EuLaLia Suarez, brothers, Jess Suarez, James Suarez, Gabriel Suarez, Henry Suarez, and her granddaughter Sarah Hinton.

Josephine is survived by her husband Bruce Smith, children, Judie (Jerry)

Hoffman of Richey, MT, Sue Monson of Glendive, MT and Linda (Fred)
Deming of Manitou Springs, CO. She was blessed with 10 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.
