

Justice Dennis Hagen

May 25, 2002 - June 25, 2020

Justice D. Hagen, age 18 of Glendive, Montana, or as she preferred, Justice (Juice) Dennis Hagen, left this earth June 25, 2020. Her vibrant spirit is still living with all those that knew and loved her. Celebration of Life services will be held at 2:00 PM on Wednesday, July 1, 2020 at the Oakland Athletic Complex in Glendive. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Justice was born on May 25, 2002, in Miles City, Montana. From the moment she drew her first breath she was immeasurably and unbelievably loved. She was a spitfire from the start and only proved that more as she grew. Her exuberance and passion for life exceeded most others, as did her stubbornness. Justice lived each moment of her life to its fullest with no regrets and no worries. Her laugh was contagious and she knew how to bring out the fun-loving, carefree side out of anybody. Still, the compassion she had for all living beings, even snakes, spiders, and roly-poly-oly bugs, shined the brightest. Her love was deep, raw, forgiving, unbiased, and absolutely beautiful.

Justice joins in heaven Dennis Pederson (grandfather), Todd Hagen (cousin), and her great grandparents.

She is survived by her parents Darren and Angie Hagen, brother Cruz Hagen, sister and brother-in-law Paige Kauffman and Ryan Hood, nephew Grayson

Hood, grandmother Stella Pederson, grandparents Betty and Justus Hagen, aunts and uncles Thad and Savana Pederson, Kyle and Laurel Pederson, Wes and Jojo Hagen, Jodi Hagen, Janet Hagen, her expansive family, and her many many loving friends.

“She didn’t just walk on the wild side, she lived there, dancing in the streets and setting fire to its sky.”

“ Angie, Darren, Paige & Cruz I’m so sorry for your loss and I send all my love and prayers to you guys. Justice was such a happy soul and I enjoyed seeing her around at the lake with the Schock family. I might not have know Justice this time in my life but I do have some memories of her at a younger age and it breaks my heart she has gone too soon. Sydney sent me this throwback from my senior prom. ☐ send you all love!

“ Darren Angie and the entire family. We send you love, hugs and prayer to each of you.. her beautiful soul will forever be each of you in love and wonderful memories!! Thursday night when I went to the lake there was the most spectacular pinkish purple cloud in the shape of an Angel I followed that cloud and thought of your precious daughter.. I know her beauty and grace, touched everyone she was around. May the grace of the Lord & guardian angels give you the strength to endure each day, the next few weeks and forever.
