

Karen Doane

February 13, 1972 - June 23, 2006

Karen Doane, age 34, of Bloomfield, Montana, died on Monday, June 19, 2006 as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident that occurred near Park City, Montana. Memorial services will be held at 2:00 P.M., Friday, June 23, 2006 in the Glendive Alliance Church with Pastor Joel Arndt and Pastor Kevin Schafer officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Karen was born on February 13, 1972 in Fort Collins, Colorado, the daughter of Andy and Mel (VanZant) Zeigler. As a child, Karen traveled extensively with her family and had received her early education attending many different schools. Karen moved to Paulina, Oregon with her family where she met and married Alan Doane on December 15, 1990. Karen and her husband lived in Oregon for ten years, making their home in Christmas Valley, Oregon for six of those years. In December of 2000, she and her family moved to Montana to the Glendive/Bloomfield area to ranch where Karen resided until the time of her death. While in Oregon, Karen worked in a head start program and as a youth educator in a Christian school. While living in Oregon and in Glendive, Karen had served as a Sunday School teacher for area youth. Karen was a very devoted mother and had a very nurturing heart for children and animals. She enjoyed painting and had painted murals in several Sunday School rooms over the years. She also enjoyed flower gardening and decorating her home. Survivors include her husband, Alan Doane of Bloomfield; her daughter, Samantha, age 13, and her son, Andrew, age 11, both of the family home in Bloomfield; her parents, Andy and Mel Zeigler of Willits, California; her sister, Connie Zeigler of Tucson, Arizona and her nephew, Nate Maupin of Tucson, Arizona.
