When the Lord God called Karin home she knew she would be joining her husband Perry O. King in God's lovely garden. Karin was born on May 30, 1940 in Beach, North Dakota, the daughter of William & Eleanor Hasselstrom. She graduated Sentinel Butte High School on May 16, 1958. The year of 1958 held yet another memorable event for Karin. She was asked for her hand in marriage to Perry Oscar on August 9, 1958. Karin embraced the challenges of life with open arms and her accomplishments always reflected her love and passion for humanity. On December 31, 1985 Karin was named to the State of Montana's Children's Trust Fund Board and served a four year term, but her advocacy for the well-being of children was a life long journey. Her contribution to the community was again enriched when Karin received her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology on June 8, 1991 from Eastern Montana College. She will be fondly remembered for her hard work, humor, compassion for all of mankind, zest for life, and most importantly her love for her family & friends. This special lady has been welcomed into the open arms of God where it is certain Karin continues to radiate her kindness and heartfelt affection to everyone she meets. Karin is survived by her only sister, Iris Basta of Helena, Montana; her children, Susan King of Richmond, California and Steven (Nancy) King of Reno, Nevada; three grandchildren, Austin King, Kaitlin King, & Nathan King.
