“ To the Hodous Family: We are so sorry for your loss. If you remember us, the Chandlers, who lived across the street on Jefferso Road. We remember Kathy as the sweet person who spent so much time in her garden--continuously keeping the yard immaculate. Sean, our son, remembered her as always being so "nice" when he went over to your house visiting Rodney. We will keep you all in our prayers. Friends, the Chandlers--Al, Carole, Sean, Scott and Dawn.

We were so sorry to hear about Kathy's passing. She was a wonderfully strong, solid and loving person. We had many long talks over the years and both felt the same way. That our lives were about our families and loving them with everything in us. She did love you dearly! I know that life seems so bleak now but remember you will see and be with her again and then it will be forever!*
