

Kay Lynn Jones

March 30, 1934 - December 31, 2017

Kay Lynn Jones of Wibaux, Montana passed away on Sunday, December 31, 2017, at the Wibaux County Nursing Home where she had resided since 2011. She was 83. Visitation will be held 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM on Friday, January 5, 2018 at the Silha Funeral Home in Wibaux and one hour prior to service at the church. A Funeral Service will be held at 10:00 AM on Saturday, January, 6, 2018 at the Wibaux Bible Church in Wibaux with Pastor Rick Varnum officiating. Interment will take place following services at the Wibaux Cemetery. Silha Funeral Home of Wibaux has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Kay was born in Wibaux on March 30, 1934, the second of three children, to Glenn and Jennie (Steele) Scammon. She grew up on the family farm northeast of Wibaux with her two brothers where she attended rural Hay Creek School. Upon her graduation from Wibaux County High School in 1952, she attended Prairie Bible Institute in Three Hills, Alberta, Canada where her mother later served on staff in the business office.

On July 3, 1955, she married Thomas James (TJ) Lynn on the Scammon farm north of Wibaux. "Jimmy" and Kay lived their entire married life on the Lynn farm south of Wibaux where they raised their two boys and three girls.

Kay was a "people person" and used her gift of hospitality generously.

Whether it was a cup of coffee, a large meal for a group of college students, or a missionary family, all were warmly welcomed and made to feel at home. She enjoyed her rural neighbors hosting coffee times and staying in touch through the telephone party line. For many years, the family home was used as a polling place for Southern Wibaux County, and each voter was treated to coffee and goodies. She always loved a good story, especially a funny one, and her laugh was contagious.

Each year Kay grew a large garden, canning and preserving from its bounty. During harvest, she often took meals to the field turning the occasion into a family picnic where she spread a blanket on the stubble field and served from the trunk of the car. Kay especially loved small children and many infants were comforted and consoled by her singing, rocking, and soothing.

Next to her home and family, Kay loved her church and served there in many ways. She played piano, taught Sunday School and Joy Club, was an active member of the Ladies' Aid, helped to direct Christmas programs, and shared her singing talent for both church and community events.

After "Jimmy" passed away in 1995, she met and subsequently married Charles Jones in April of 2004. She and Charlie resided in Lancaster, Pennsylvania before returning to Wibaux in 2009. Due to declining health, Charlie returned to Pennsylvania where he died in 2010. In addition to "Jimmy" and Charlie, Kay is preceded in death by her infant daughter, Sylvia Ann, and her parents.

Kay is survived by her two sons, Steven (Joni) Lynn of Glendive, Montana and Richard (Lorrie) Lynn of Wibaux; her three daughters, Becky (Pete) Davis of Kalispell, Montana, Susan (Tim) Campbell of Wibaux and Rita (Irwin) Harder of Campbell River, British Columbia; her brothers, Sammie Scammon of Wibaux and Lester (Sue) Scammon of Billings, Montana; 19 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers or other considerations, the family requests that any memorials be directed to KGLE Radio (www.kgle.org) or the Gideons International (www.2gideons.org).

Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at www.silhafuneralhomes.com.
