“ Anna, Janice, Connie and Kevin, I'm hoping you find solace in knowing what a wonderful husband, father and grandfather Uncle Kenny was and what a dear friend he was to our father, Maynard. I still recall how he helped me land the job with the highway department the summer after my first year in college. I have so many fond memories that will always be there when I hear his name. Take care and may the good Lord keep you strong and faithful.
In our thoughts and prayers,
Steve and Marsha Baisch

I have so many good memories growing up of Kenny and Anna. Kenny always had a smile for the kids. More recently, I saw him out tending to the vets at the cemetery making sure all were tended to and had flags.
He will be missed and my heart aches for the grief you are all going through now. Sending love, condolences and an extra big hug to Anna.
Love, Jill Roesler-Fitzgerald and family
