Kevin was born on February 10, 1964 in Glendive, Montana, the son of Gilbert and Kathleen (Nistler) Quade. He was raised and educated in Wibaux, graduating from Wibaux High School with the class of 1982. While in school, Kevin participated in football, basketball, band, FFA and 4-H. He was selected as the homecoming king of his graduating class. Following his high school graduation, Kevin attended Billings Vo-tech for two years. He was employed as a regional manager for Jeans West for a period of ten years during which time he lived in Billings, Kansas City, Seattle, Boulder, Minneapolis and San Diego. While living in San Diego, managing the Jean West Stores, Kevin had the opportunity to attend the NFL pro bowl in Honolulu and went as often as he could. In 1995, Kevin returned to Wibaux and purchased the Rainbow Club where he continued to work until the time of his death. He loved his children and was a good dad. He especially enjoyed boating and camping with his children. Kevin was committed to the Wibaux sports programs and especially enjoyed coaching 5th and 6th grade football. Kevin was a proud fan of the Dallas Cowboys. Kevin was preceded in death by his grandparents; his brothers, Blaine, Dusty, Timothy and an infant sister. Survivors include his children, Azhia and Jhett of Wibaux; his parents, Gilbert and Kathleen Quade of Wibaux; his sister, Debbie Quade (Rick Hoffarth) of Billings; numerous nieces, aunts and uncles.
