She happily remained in Glendive her entire life in the house that her husband built.

Bonnie enjoyed the outdoors. She loved hunting, fishing, camping, agate picking, her flower beds, and her remarkable garden. Bonnie was selfless, and she greatly enjoyed helping people. She was an affectionate wife and mother. She also cherished her time spent with her grandchildren, great grandchildren, her cats, and the neighborhood cats.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her husband, Bud; her oldest son, Michael; her brothers Barney and Joey Stoner; and her sister Patti Hood. She is survived by her son, Pat; daughters, Kate and Nancee; her brother, Larry; numerous nieces and nephews; and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Bonnie was loved by all and will be greatly missed. She was truly the most self-sacrificing, giving, genuine, and honest person who touched so many lives.
