“ I vividly remember a Thanksgiving at Aunt LaVerne and Uncle Vernon's home in Glendive. Cannot remember the year, but I was probably about 8 years old. There was food absolutely everywhere. I recall all the extra tables that were set up for all of us. I bet there were 25 or more family members running around, picking at the turkey and putting black olives on our fingers! I am 62 now, so we are looking at 50 years ago. Of course I have many other memories. Most recently, Aunt LaVerne and her boys attended my dear Dad's service in Riverton, Wyoming in March of 2016. I have to smile just a bit when I think of the fact that she can hear us all now. Aunt LaVerne was such a caring and loving woman. I pray for blessings for this wonderful woman and her family. She is hugging my Dad, Duane - another brother, Uncle Harold - her husband, Vernon - and of course, the many others that have left their earthly life and greeted her with warm and welcoming arms in Heaven. I love you Aunt LaVerne., Your loving niece, Debbie Terech (Please give my boys a kiss and a hug from their Momma).
