Interment with military honors will be held in Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Lester was born on April 28, 1926 a son of Samuel and Anna (Limesand) Sampson in Glendive. He was raised and educated in Lindsay, Montana where Les attended school through the eighth grade. Les worked with his father on the family farm until he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in 1950. He remained in the Air Force until his honorable discharge in 1955 when he returned home to the family farm. Les had worked as a police officer for the city of Glendive for a short time before starting his career as a truck driver in 1957. He drove truck for over thirty years for Northern Tank Lines which later became Cenex Pipeline until his retirement. During his retirement Les drove truck for a short time for Haliburton until he became a custodian at Dawson County High School and also the activities bus driver. Les was united in marriage to Jean McCullough on November 23, 1958 in Hope, North Dakota. To this union four children were born. Les enjoyed playing his harmonica, dancing, shooting pool and most of all, bowling. He loved to socialize and you could always depend on Les for a good joke. Les always made time for his grandchildren's sporting events, especially baseball. Les was a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church, the Moose Lodge and the Teamsters Union. Les was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, Milford, Lyle, Floyd and Raymond; one sister, Vyla Clemmons. Survivors include his wife, Jean Sampson of Glendive; four children, Craig (Lori) Sampson of Vernal, Utah, Colby (Susie) Sampson, Cindy Scheetz and Cara (Doug) Seborg all of Glendive; eight grandchildren, Brandon (Megan) Scheetz, Jakeb and Tessa Scheetz, Seth and Sadie Sampson, Dane and Jordan Seborg all of Glendive, Bailie Sampson of Vernal; numerous nieces and nephews.
