

Lewis Baumgardner

November 30, 1944 - October 3, 2011

Glendive, Montana: Lewis Baumgardner, age 66, passed away on Friday, September 2, 2011 at his home in Glendive. A graveside service with military honors will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Monday, October 3, 2011 at Dawson Memorial Cemetery with Chaplain John Groshart officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Lewis Clayton Baumgardner was born on November 30, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. After his birth, he and his family moved to Browning, Montana where his father was a rancher and his mother was a housewife. Lewis received his early education in Browning before his family relocated to West Virginia, where he attended high school. Lewis enlisted in the United States Army and proudly served his country until January 7, 1963. Following his service in the military, Lewis went to work for Shell Oil company as an electrical engineer until an injury forced him to retire. Following his retirement he moved from state to state, settling in Florida for six years before making Glendive his home. Lewis had many hobbies, his favorite being fishing. He loved fishing in Florida, and as long as he could fish he was happy. Lewis also enjoyed putting together puzzles, and he had a great sense of humor. Lewis was preceded in death by his wife and two children, one brother, and one sister. He is survived by all his Brothers in Arms and numerous friends. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silvernale-silhafuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Lewis Baumgardner

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM