Lillian was born January 2, 1911 on the family farm, the daughter of Louis Sr. and Anna (Cervany) Raisler. She attended schools in Golva, North Dakota.

Lillian married Ralph Wilson on December 1, 1939 at the Congregational Parsonage in Glendive, Montana. After their marriage they farmed south east of Beach until 1985 when they retired and moved into Beach. Lillian's joy was having a large garden and freezing fresh vegetables for the winter. She was well known for her home made bread, both rye and whole wheat. She even ground her own grain. Lillian and Ralph were some of the early snow birds.

They spent winters in Mesa, Arizona where they made many friends. Lillian was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Ralph and seven brothers and three sisters. Lillian is survived by three sisters-in-law; Ima Raisler of Beach, North Dakota, Alva Payne and Elsie Payne both of Glendive, Montana; a brother-in-law, Donald Wilson of Washington State; numerous nieces and nephews as well as great and great great nieces and nephews, local ones include Steve Raisler and Grace Hutsell of Beach and Roland (Mary) Raisler of Dickinson, North Dakota.
