

Lilly Lapp

July 12, 1916 - January 17, 2008

Lilly Lapp, age 91, of Glendive, passed away on January 17, 2008 at the Glendive Medical Center. No services are planned at this time. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive was entrusted with arrangements. Lilly was born on July 12, 1916 in Bayard, Nebraska, the daughter of Gottlieb and Catherine Elizabeth (Daubert) Kraus. She was raised and educated in Bayard. Lilly was united in marriage to Harold Lapp in February of 1934 in Harrisburg, Nebraska. They moved to Savage, Montana and farmed there until moving to the Buffalo Rapids Project near Fallon in 1945 where they farmed in the summer and fed cattle in the winter. They retired after their son, Bob, was killed in a farm accident and built a new home not far from the farm. When the yard became too much to care for, they moved to Glendive where Harold took great pride in his yard and Lilly spent her spare time with her many crafts. Preceded her in death are her parents; her husband, Harold in 2006; son, Robert in 1973; five brothers, Fred, Dave, Pete, Henry and Jake; two sisters, Mary and Molly. Survivors include her daughter, Betty Jimison and her husband Norman of Glendive; her brother, Sam Kraus and his wife Irene of Morrill, Nebraska; four grandchildren, Sheryl Jimison, Mark Jimison, Harley Lapp and Vonda Lapp; numerous nieces and nephews.
