

Margaret Seeberger

August 29, 1915 - October 11, 2015

Margaret Seeberger, age 100, of Glendive, Montana, passed away on Sunday, October 11, 2015 at the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care. Graveside Services will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Thursday, October 22, 2015 in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive with Father Francis Schreiber officiating. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Margaret was the first child of Pat and Sarah (Brawley) Haggerty that was born in the United States. She was born on August 29, 1915 in Glendive. She was raised and educated in Glendive attending Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Lincoln Elementary School, Washington Middle School and graduated from Dawson County High School.

Margaret met Peter Seeberger, a young man who would eventually become her husband. Margaret and Pete were married on September 2, 1933 at the Cathedral of Saint Helena in Helena. Together as a couple they returned back to Glendive where they started their lives together.

Margaret and Pete had two children together; Donald Eugene who was born in 1934 and Luceile Carol who was born in 1936. Pete passed away due to a sudden heart attack in May of 1961 leaving Margaret to raise their children alone. Margaret cared for both of them throughout her life.

Margaret enjoyed driving, crocheting, knitting and helping others. On August 29, 2015, Margaret celebrated her 100th birthday with family and friends surrounding her at the Sagebrush Alley Senior Citizens Center. Afterwards she spent hours reading the many cards and letters given to her in celebration.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents; three siblings; husband, Peter Seeberger in 1961 and her son, Donald Eugene Seeberger in 2010. She is survived by her daughter, Luceile Carol Seeberger of Glendive and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.
