Marilyn was born to Fred and Teckla (Nistler) Noll on August 26, 1936, the oldest of seven children. Marilyn attended school in Golva, graduating with the class of 1954. That fall, she was off to college at Dickinson State. It was a short stay, as in November Marilyn's brother Rick was born, and Marilyn's mother passed away in childbirth. The next day, Marilyn moved home from college to care for her siblings, Jerry, Judy, Janet, Kathy and baby Rick. Marilyn dated Edwin Rising while in high school. Eddie, worked for the Northern Pacific Railway until March of 1952, when he was inducted into the armed services for two years. In 1955, Eddie returned from Korea and as they had always planned, were married on May 26, 1955. Marilyn and Edwin lived in Golva where they ran their business, Eddie's Oil Company. Eventually Ed and Marilyn started their own family. While supporting their first family, six more children were welcomed to this union. Her first son (baby brother) Rick Noll married Elaine Barthel. They have four children: Heidi (Patirck) Currie,

Sarah McCaskey, Tyler (Denise), and Brittany (Brett) Collins. Robert was born in August of 1956. He married Deborah Peters. They have three sons: Brent, Dustin, and Jordan. In September of 1957, Cheryl was born. She is married to Mike Bostyan. They have two children: Becky (Tim) Lilly and Lucas (Jennifer) Bostyan. In July of 1958, Rodney was born. He married Kathleen Ausmunstad. Kathy had two children: Corey and Holly (Bob) Steier. Holly and Bob have two children: Shelby and Kamryn. In May of 1959, Steven was born. He is married to Renata Fisher. They have two daughters: Rachel and Brandi. Gary was born in November of 1961. He is married to Lori Binstock. They have three daughters: Jill, Paige, and Megan. Mary Kay was born in November of 1962. She married Ron Barthel. They have three children: Joshua, Lacey, and Alex.

Edwin passed away suddenly at home on December 10, 2002. Years later, Marilyn was reacquainted with lifelong friend, Charley Carlson. They were united in marriage on June 16, 2006. Marilyn was blest with a step daughter, Gayle (Gerry) Barthel, and two stepsons, Gregg (Virginia) Carlson and Gary "Pete" (Amanda) Carlson. Together they made their home in Beach, until the time of his death in September, 2013.

Marilyn enjoyed family. She had many extras in her house over the years, and always made room for more. Marilyn was an excellent homemaker. She cleaned, cooked, baked, ironed, and proudly kept an immaculate home. Marilyn's hobbies were living her faith, crocheting, making rosaries and being the best mother and grandmother around. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren were her life. Marilyn was blest with nineteen grandchildren and thirty-two great grandchildren.

Marilyn was a member of St. Anne's Altar Society and served on the Golva City Council for many years. She worked for Charley Bush doing housekeeping and office duties, and worked with her twin sisters at Page Two, a resale store in Beach.

Marilyn moved to the Golden Valley Manor in February of 2016. Her last earthly home was the Wibaux County Nursing Home.

Marilyn was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Teckla; husbands, Edwin and Charley; and sisters, (infant, Margaret Ann) and Kathleen Leom. “ I'm so sorry for the loss of your precious mother. She was a pleasant lady who I always enjoyed chatting with when we visited Golva. I'd see her in her yard when I walked to the post office and see your dad sitting in front of the station. I'm so glad I had the opportunity to know them both. They raised a wonderful family. May they Rest In Peace together.
