

Mario J. Raymond Daniels

April 29, 1982 - November 24, 2021

Mario J. Raymond Daniels, age 39 of Glendive, Montana passed away on Wednesday, November 24, 2021 from an automobile accident near Glendive. Cremation has taken place and a Celebration of Life will be held at a future date. Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Mario J. Raymond Daniels was born on April 29, 1982 to Donald and Diana Daniels of Missoula, Montana. Mario grew up with his family in Whitefish, Montana until he moved to Missoula where he started a family of his own. Mario from a small age wanted to be a dad. Elijah J. Daniels was born on September 3, 2003 and Giovanni M. Daniels was born August 6, 2006. Mario loved the outdoors, he loved to garden, and working with wood, but most of all he was known as the Chef of the Family. Mario was always putting on BBQ for friends and family. Anyone who knew him knows that he was the first to crack a joke or give someone a bad time. He had a bubbly personality. He was always with his family and family meant everything to him. It was in 2004 that Mario and his family moved to Glendive where he got a job in the Oilfield Industry. He and his family have resided there since then. Mario spent many days catching footballs and baseballs with his boys or watching their sports games.

He is preceded in death by his mother Diana (Daniels) Levi, cousin Dannel Plute, and his uncle Clint Brown.

He is survived by his sons Elijah Daniels and Gino Daniels, his sisters Talia

(Clifton) Behner, Nicole (Jack) Claussen, a brother he grew to love Andy Gozalez, his nieces Cherokee and Emily Behner, his nephews Draven and Caden Claussen, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, ect...

Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.
