Maxine was born on March 30, 1922 in Ulm, Montana, to Harold and Gertrude Wright. Her family later moved to Box Elder, Montana, where her dad worked as station depot agent. She met the love of her life, William (Bill) Shore, and they were married on September 2, 1939 in Havre, Montana. To this union four children were born: Wilma (Corky), Charlotte, Robert, and Larry. The family moved to Fort Assiniboine, where Bill worked as a foreman for an experimental agriculture station for five years. From here, the family moved to Havre, where Maxine made beautiful drapes for Buttrey Co. Later, she checked groceries for years. Bill and Maxine built Shore's Floral Greenhouse and Garden Center, which they owned and operated until their retirement in 1972. After retirement, they moved to Augusta, Montana, where they enjoyed hunting and fishing. In 2000, they moved to Simms, Montana, Before their final move to Circle in 2007.

Maxine was preceded in death by her husband, Bill, in 2012; her parents; her brother, Robert; her children, Robert Shore and Wilma (Corky) Curtiss; sons-in-law, Les Dolezal and LuVerne "Doc" Curtiss; and great-grand daughter Carley Henley .

Maxine is survived by her daughter, Charlotte Dolezal of Enumclaw, Washington; son, Larry (Diane) Shore of Circle, Montana; 15 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.
