Monica was born on November 10, 1919 in Morton County, North Dakota, the daughter of Clement and Rose (Keller) Doll. She was raised and educate in rural Morton County, near Almont, North Dakota and attended rural schools there, graduating from the 8th grade. She lived on the family farm until her marriage to Adam Weinberger on November 21, 1939 in rural Glen Ullin, North Dakota. Monica and her husband moved to Grant County, North Dakota, also located near Almont where they farmed until 1952. They then moved to Glendive and Monica was a homemaker until her family was raised and she worked with her husband at Reynold's as a meat wrapper. Monica was a terrific mother, mother-in-law, grandma and friend. She spent many hours playing with and babysitting her grandchildren. She had a great sense of humor and was always playing practical jokes. She loved life and lived it to the fullest. Monica enjoyed playing cards, dancing, watching soaps and holiday gatherings with her family. Monica was a member of the Confraternity of Christian Mothers and the Kitchen Band. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Adam, in 1986; two sisters, Anna and Albertine; and two brothers, George and Steve. Survivors include her four sons, Lavern Weinberger and his wife Rae Deen of Dickinson, North Dakota, Arthur Weinberger of Glendive, Robert Weinberger and his wife Janice of Salem, Oregon and Wayne Weinberger and his wife Donna of Glendive; two sisters, Mary Fitterer of Mandan, North Dakota and Katie Reisenauer of Mandan, North Dakota; two brothers, Nick Doll of Mandan, North Dakota and Ed Doll and his wife Leona of Hanover, North Dakota; 10 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and one great great granddaughter. Monica will be missed by her family and friends.
