“ To the familys of Nancy & her beloved husband who pass before Nancy. I give you my deepest sympathy. I worked I the Vets home from 2008-2013 before transferred to Extended Care 2013-2014. Nancy was always willing to pick up shifts if I become ill. God Bless

“ Nancy was my aunt, my dad's sister. She was always nice. I remember when I was a kid, she used to give me hand made gifts, she was good at sewing. My family and I were all a part of her wedding when she married Dan in Montana back in 2004. She and Dan enjoyed coming to family reunions, and that's the last time we saw them was in 2018 and the Koxlien reunion. She will be missed. Gone too soon. It's nice to read all the kind things people had to say about her on here. Thank you all. - Sue Koxlien

“ Had a lot of fun with all of the people who went to Two-Wheel Tuesdays during the summer months. Nancy went regularly and always came with a smile on her face. I will miss seeing her on Tuesdays and in the halls at Glendive Medical Center. RIP
