August 12, 1959 - April 18, 2009

Neal Douglas Matejovsky was born on August 12, 1959 in Havre, Montana. The third child of Eugene and Mary (Eide) Matejovsky. He grew up and attended school in several Montana towns including Plentywood, Libby, Froid, Huntley and Sidney. He graduated from Sidney High School in Sidney, Montana, class of 1978. As an adult Neal lived in Williston and Dickinson, North Dakota and Reno, Nevada for a time. At the time of his death he lived in Dickinson. Neal was an adventurous person with a strong personality who often led his siblings on escapades throughout his childhood. He was smart and fearless, so his adventures were many and anything but dull. The pride and joy of Neal's life was his daughter Jessica. He beamed when he spoke of her, his love for her shining through with every word. Neal was preceded in death by his father and step-father. Neal is survived by his daughter, Jessica; his mother, Mary Giles; his sisters, Shirley Ann Brown and Debbie Murray; his brothers, Gene Matejovsky, Rob Purvis, David Purvis and Tommy Purvis. Neal is also survived by many true friends he made throughout his life. His family wishes to thank all of the people who made a positive difference, cared deeply, watched over and stood by him through life's struggles. Even though we can't name you all here now-know that your friendships and love meant a lot to Neal and to us. Remembrances and condolences for Neal's daughter, Jessica may be sent to: Shirley Ann Brown, 303 S. Sargent Ave., Glendive, MT 59330
