

Norman L. Lindbo

September 6, 1923 - November 4, 2003

Norman Lyle Lindbo, age 80, of Glendive, passed away on Saturday, November 1, 2003 at the Glendive Medical Center in Glendive. Graveside services will be held at 10:00 A.M., Tuesday, November 4, 2003 at the Dawson County Cemetery in Glendive with Pastor Paul Everett officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Norman was born on September 6, 1923 in Dickinson, North Dakota, the son of Andrew C. and Helga (Kasin) Lindbo. He was raised and educated in the Belfield area and attended rural school north of Belfield. Norman operated the family farm north of Belfield and also worked part time for the railroad. In 1966, the family farm was sold and Norman went to work full time for the railroad. Norman was married and to this union, five boys were born, Lyle, LeRoy, Leonard, Keith and Kevin. He moved to Glendive a couple of years later where he resided until the time of his death. Norman enjoyed farming, playing the accordion and guitar, visiting with his neighbors and in his younger years he enjoyed fishing. Norman is preceded in death by his parents; two sons, Lyle and LeRoy; brothers, Howard, Carl, Anthony and Clarence; his sisters, Ida, Mable A., Mable E., Alice and Lillian; brother-in-law, Joseph Jeromchek; sisters-in-law, Marcy and Lola. Survivors include three sons, Leonard Lindbo and his wife Connie of Dickinson, North Dakota, Keith Lindbo of Port Angeles, Washington, Kevin Lindbo and his wife Carolyn of Morro Bay, California; five brothers, Ole Lindbo and his wife Jeorgeann of Anacortes, Washington, Andrew Lindbo and his wife Helen of Belfield, North Dakota,

Lloyd Lindbo of Fryburg, North Dakota, Harry Lindbo and his wife Dorothy of Tacoma, Washington, Edward Lindbo and his wife Marion of Waconia, Minnesota; one sister, Clara Jeromchek of Spokane, Washington; his special friend, Margaret Stevenson of Glendive; two grandchildren, three great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Norman L. Lindbo

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM