

Paul Alvin Cornell

September 30, 1954 - September 12, 2022

Paul Alvin Cornell was born on September 30, 1954 to Charles and Odette (Roberts) Cornell in Sentinel Butte. He was raised there and continued to live in Sentinel Butte until his passing.

Paul was united in marriage to Chris Bandit on September 28, 1999 in Beach. Chris was the love of his life and was greatly missed when she passed away in 2006. Paul took over his dad's mail route in 1994 and Chris helped Paul deliver mail until her death. In all, Paul delivered mail in the Sentinel Butte area for almost twenty-five years, creating memories and friends at every stop.

Paul also had a love for Caterpillar machines and eventually bought a road grader. From then on, he worked for the county grading roads and delivering mail.

Paul was preceded in death by his wife, Chris; his sister, Alice Cornell and his parents, Charles and Odette.

Paul is survived by his sister, Barbara (Bruce) Allen of Dickinson, ND; nephew, Perry Metcalf of Dickinson and several cousins throughout the area. Paul went to be with his Lord and Savior on Monday, September 12, 2022. He passed away peacefully at his home with his friends by his side, whom he referred to as "his daughters." Paul will be greatly missed.

Visitation will be held at 9:00 A.M. on Tuesday, September 27, 2022 at Grace Church in Beach, North Dakota and a 10:00 A.M. Funeral Service following with Pastor Ben Baker officiating. Interment will take place at St. Michael's Cemetery in Sentinel Butte with a luncheon after at Sentinel Butte Community Hall. Silha Funeral Home of Beach has been entrusted with the arrangements. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.

“ *to Paul's family,
sorry about your loss.
Paul and i got the giggles, couldn't quit, and ruined the mother's day play when we were in the 3rd and 4th grade. Mrs Waldal wasn't very happy with us.
