“ A great man once said, "touch my bald head one more time and I'll departs you in front of everybody!" Pete was a man of his word and one that will be missed greatly by me and many others. You see, I grew up sitting on Pete's lap learning the game of pinochle, being told right from wrong, but most importantly being taught about friendship and family. I was fortunate to grow up in Wibaux with a plethora of good people. Pete and Ruth were my second parents. Our families meshed together as one. They were there for birthdays, 4-H events, sporting events, graduations, weddings, and just about everything you could imagine. Some of my best memories of my younger years involve one heck of a good family, the Shieffers. From brandings to a Hawaiian vacation the memories are many. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Schieffer family as I know Pete will be missed!

“ I have many many memories of Uncle Pete especially out at the ranch. He gave me a nickname of Droopy drawers one day when I was apparently wearing a pair of baggy pants. Luckily that nickname was just between us but I've always remembered it. Rest in peace Uncle Pete and say Hi to Dad. It's his birthday today.

“ I've always thought Uncle Pete reminded me of James Arness. I watch Gunsmoke a lot and so am reminded of him often.

One of the most influential leaders I have known. Caring, honest, hardworking, forthright, are some of the words that come to my mind.
