“ Families of Randi, I just heard the news about his passing. I can't believe Randi is gone, but we know he is in heaven with his parents, and other family members. Randi will always have a place in our hearts. It's sad as we got older we all went our seperate ways. Brenda, I thought I had your number but didn't find it, or I would of called you. We love you all. Prayers for Randi and his family.

“ The Dinardi family is slowing slipping away to our final destination! I met Randi twice . Once at his Dads ,my Uncle Joes funeral, and at Random wedding. My kids and I were visiting brothers I Miles City from WV. Don't remember much,but. It was the last time I saw slot of my Dinardi family! I am 80 years old now and don't travel wee but I extend my sympathy to Random family. We are cousins separated by life but connected by blood! I love everyone of you!!

Peggy this is Brenda Randi sister I wish you could've known him better he was like many Dinardi's he loved the garden and he loved to cook and love to agate hunt. Like many Dinardi's before him he started off working for the railroad until a back injury stopped him from doing that job. He had three beautiful children Josh Jamie and Leah. His heart was broken after mom died just too much to take he's in heaven with her and dad now and with a lot of our other relatives God bless you and your family
