Raymond was born on November 27, 1916 in Glendive, the son of Reier R. and Brita (Paulson) Herigstad. He was raised and educated in Wibaux County, graduating from Wibaux County High School in 1935. The following winter he went to welding school in Fargo, North Dakota. Raymond returned home to the family ranch and worked with his parents. When his father's health started to fail, Raymond rented the ranch, sold some the sheep and started into the cattle business. Raymond bought the ranch in 1947 and continued, throughout his life, to enlarge and improve his herd of cattle. He loved ranching, cared for his land, and made many improvements to increase its productivity. When his sons joined him in later years, Ray made his home in Glendive and commuted to work. Ray was very mechanical, could fix anything and helped his neighbors many times with their equipment breakdowns. Ray was also a good carpenter and enjoyed woodworking. In his last years, before he lost his vision to macular degeneration, he made many intricate wooden pictures with his scroll saw. Raymond was a life member of the Glendive Moose Lodge #949 and a past member of the Dawson County Farm Bureau and Montana Stock Growers Association. Raymond married Alfrida Kolstad on December 2, 1939. Alfrida passed away in 1987. On November 2, 1990, Raymond married Margaret Temple. Raymond was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Alfrida, his grandson Scott, his son Gerald and his sister Myrtle. Raymond is survived by his wife Margaret of Dickinson, North Dakota; one son, Rawlin (Chris Ann) Herigstad of Torrington, Wyoming; two daughters, Janette (Ron) Granmoe of Glendive, Marleen (Jim) Story of Corvallis, Montana; one daughter-in-law, Sharon Herigstad of Glendive; ten grandchildren and eighteen great grandchildren.
