He was raised and educated in Marsh until moving to Fallon when he was ten years old. He graduated from the eighth grade in Fallon. In 1942 he went to Seattle, Washington to Northwest Bible Institute where he later graduated in 1946. After graduation he ministered in several locations before moving back to Montana.

When Richard was visiting a pastor friend in Dickinson, North Dakota he met the love of his life Mabel Elmquist. After a brief courtship they were married on September 6, 1954 in Dickinson. After they were married Richard and Mabel moved to Glendive, where he was employed with the City of Glendive until his first retirement. After retirement he worked several jobs including building the interstate, until starting at Dawson Community College in 1974 where he worked as a Custodian until his second retirement in the late eighties at the age of sixty two.
