

Richard "Rick" Charles Carlson

May 15, 1946 - August 28, 2021

Richard "Rick" Charles Carlson, age 75, of Bowman, North Dakota, passed away on August 28, 2021 at St. Luke's Home in Dickinson, North Dakota. A Graveside Service will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, October 4, 2021 at the Beach Lutheran Cemetery with Pastor Anthony Ahrendt officiating. Silha Funeral Home of Beach, North Dakota has been entrusted with the arrangements.

Rick was born on May 15, 1946 to Robert and Ruby (Hathaway) Carlson, the oldest of two sons. He was a Boy Scout and attended the National Boy Scout Jamboree in 1960. Rick graduated from Beach High School in 1964. That year he joined the United States Navy where he was an Aircrew Instructor. On June 7, 1969, Rick was married to Barbara Lassell of Beach. Barbara and Rick raised two boys, Reid and Troy.

In 1975, Rick helped organize the first volunteer ambulance service to the community of Beach. While with the Ambulance service, he became an EMT and an Advanced Red Cross and American Heart Society CPR Instructor. He also was an organizer of the North Dakota Association of Emergency Services serving on the Steering Committee, Governing Body, and Board of Directors. Rick enjoyed fishing, whether it be from shore, on a boat or on the ice.

Rick is survived by his sons, Reid (Anni) and Troy of Bowman, North Dakota; grandchildren, Nicole Carlson and Mathew Carlson; his brother, Steve (Holly) of Lincoln, North Dakota; nieces, DyAnn and Shanna, and nephew, Sean.

Rick was preceded in death by his granddaughter, Cianna Carlson and his parents, Robert and Ruby Carlson.

In lieu of flowers or gifts we ask that you give memorials to the Beach Community Ambulance. Remembrances and condolences may be shared with the family at: www.silhafuneralhomes.com.
