“ *You have my deepest sympathy. We've all had to endure the sorrow of losing a loved one in death. What helped me the most was prayer and faith in God's promises like found here at Psalm 34: 18 and it tells us: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." Grief never ends But it changes. It's a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith It is the price of love."

“ To the family of Ricky. I went through all my school years with Ricky, and, because our names were close in the alphabet, (my last name being Thompson) we often were placed near each other in class. As we grew up we became "school buddies" and would connect with each other on the playground and then in class. He would sometimes help me with my schoolwork. He had an amazing mind and amazing way of thinking! He didn't make himself the center of attention, but he should have! We graduated together in the GREAT class of 1974 at DCHS! He worked with my husband, Dan, on the railroad and I would sometimes see him around the railroad yard or section house. I'm so, so, sorry for your loss. Having just lost my husband in May I feel your pain. Many prayers for his family. Kris Ruddy
