

Robert Fulton

December 28, 1921 - January 14, 2003

Robert C. Fulton, age 81, of Glendive, died at Aspen Meadows in Billings on Thursday, January 9, 2003. Graveside services with military honors will be held at 11:30 A.M., Tuesday, January 14, 2003 in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery with Father Joseph Ponessa officiating. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Bob was born on December 28, 1921 in Whittier, California to Thomas Lee and Isabella (Grijalva) Fulton. As a young man he joined the United States Navy and served as a submarine torpedoman in the South Pacific during World War II. He was honorably discharged on December 7, 1945 in San Pedro, California. His adventure brought him to the Pacific Northwest in 1947 where he met and married Ethel Marie Kuklenski, together they raised five children. His talent and curiosity to see how machines worked gave him the opportunity to be a part of the building of a nation. From the Grand Coulee Dam, down the waterways of the Columbia and Snake Rivers to the Nuclear Power Plants on the Hanford Reservation in the Tri Cities, Washington. He was a heavy duty mechanic for the Operating Engineers Local 370 for 47 years. His marriage to Alice Badt in 1975 became another of the wonderful adventures of his life. They decided to continue that adventure from Glendive, Montana in 1993. From the badlands of Montana to the Pacific Ocean, from Canada to California, we are all better people for having met the greatest man we ever knew. Robert began his next adventure in the hands of our Lord on January 9, 2003. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Alice; and one stepson, Conrad Badt. Bob is survived by his brother, Thomas Fulton and sister, Rosemary Holmes both of Long Beach, California; sons, Tom Fulton of Cheney, Washington and Tim Fulton of Benton City, Washington; daughters, Marna Wilson of Burbank, Washington, Erin Tillenburg of Burbank, Washington, and Gina Eoff; his stepson, Gary Badt of Bellvue, Washington; eight grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren. Memorials are suggested to the Dawson County Food Bank, P.O. Box 1309, Glendive, MT 59330.

Tribute Wall

“ Robert Fulton

December 07, 2022 at 04:10 PM

“ MY FATHER ROBERT CAROL FULTON HELPED ME NAVIGATE MY FIRST BIKE WITHOUT TRAINING WHEELS AND PLAYED CHESS WITH ME=GINA KAY FULTON(EOFF).

GINA KAY FULTON - September 14, 2019 at 08:20 PM