Rite of Committal with military honors will be held in the Dawson County Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Bob was born on January 15, 1935 in Fort Rice, North Dakota, the son of Victor and Mary (Burns) LaDuke. He attended school through the eighth grade. Following the eighth grade, Bob helped on the family farm until 1956 when, Bob enlisted in the United States Army where he was honorably discharged in February of 1962. Bob met and married his best friend, Delores Kahl on April 7, 1958 in Sheilds, North Dakota, and to this union three children were born. Bob's work was his hobby; he worked road construction and the oilfields of North Dakota and Montana. In his later years he drove truck for Prince Incorporation. Bob retired four different times, each retirement only usually lasted through the winter then he would be back working again. In Bob's retirement years he was known as the "Old Part Timer" with Mitchells Oilfield Service. Bob was a cowboy through and through; he was very particular about his cowboy boots. He enjoyed old westerns, dancing and rodeos; particularly the NFR Finals in Las Vegas, Nevada. He especially enjoyed spending time with his family; there was always a special place in his heart for each and every one of his grandchildren. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Victor and Mary LaDuke; five brothers, Joe, Ellsworth, Raymond, Earl and Glen LaDuke and two sisters, Frances and Dorothy LaDuke. Survivors include his wife, Delores Kahl LaDuke of Glendive; three children, Kevin LaDuke of Elko, Nevada, Kerry Goroski and her husband Larry of Shelby Montana and Cammy Balcer and her husband Leo of Sidney, Montana; three sisters, Arlene Roberts and Alice Holzer both of Gillette, Wyoming and Deloris Seiler of Mandan, North Dakota; grandchildren, Rory LaDuke and his wife Jenn of Billings, Montana, Sarah Clary and her husband Bob of Shelby, Jade Goroski of Missoula, Montana, Kyle Goroski and his wife Dana of Missoula, Brett Balcer of Williston, North Dakota, Kraig and Abby Balcer both of Sidney, and six great grandchildren.
