“ Robin was indeed a one of a kind. So caring of others. I had the opportunity to meet her thru our sons and then thru work. She worked tirelessly to help others. She had such a big heart. Thoughts and prayers to Max and Alex.

“ Lived across the street from Robin in Caldwell, NJ, when we were kids. Remember walking to school together and playing after school. Sitting on each other’s porch playing cards on rainy summer afternoons. And so many times we shared memories. We even had birthdays a day apart. Rest well dear friend, I will remember you all the days of my life.

“ Words can be woefully inadequate sometimes. Robin was always one-of-a-kind and had a generous heart and compassion for others. It was always fun for me to hear her hair-raising stories of her youth; some so zany I could hardly believe it was the same person. I enjoyed a visit with her recently and liked that she always gave others a warm welcome. My sympathy to Max and Alec.
