“ The Miller family has always been in my life. Ethel was my aunt and we, we the Gardner family' from Fairview visited often. Ronnie always had an interesting experience to share. Some good and some not so good but Ronnie always had a way to tell it and the story that went with it. He was a great cousin and friend. I always looked forward to the visits with the millers and Ronnie always made it fun. A book should be written about Ronnie. Most people who new him could easily contribute one chapter.

“ Ron helped me thru a devastating life challenge in 2006. We became friends and coworkers. Many hours spent drinking coffee and sharing stories, a few of them true. Roadtrips and greasy shirts, how come I never got to drive,Ron? Many adventures and different challenges did you have. All the critters you loved....Attila (dogzilla), ferrets, Ricky blue persian kitty...all with you now across the Rainbow Bridge. Thanx for loving me at my worst, I love you too. G
