Rosemary was the sixth child born to Carl and Agnes Molenda Colbrese on September 26, 1931. She was born on the family farm north of town, raised and educated in Glendive, graduating with the class of 1950. Rosemary took a short trip to California with a girlfriend where she worked as a nurses aide. Upon her return she continued her trade working at Northern Pacific Hospital. On September 26, 1953 she married her life-long love, John H. "Curly" Nichols. Rosemary was a member of the Women of the Moose, Glendive Bowling League and a birthday club with many local women. Her days were filled with family picnics, fishing trips, hikes in the hills and bike riding with her children. She enjoyed ceramics, sewing, gardening, dancing with her husband, keeping upwith the fast pace of eight children and the World Series. While Curly worked out of the home, Rosemay was committed to nurturing and caring for her family and home. Together in 1987, they purchased the Twilite Dining & Lounge and hand-in-hand served and welcomed all. Rosemary was preceded in death by her husband, parents and brothers Harry and Carl Colbrese. Rosemary is survived by her eight children: Valorie Kuntz and her husband Pat, and their children Tasia, Trevor, Rachel and Aimee and one great grandchild Quentin; Wade and Melanie and their children Kaara (Micheal and their son Benjamin) and Trent; Greg and Kory and their children Ashley, Nicole (Lee and their daughter Alexis), Kendra, and KD; Laurene Newton and her husband Clay and their children Seth, Codi (Cole), and Wyatt; Keith and Shirley Ann; Bridget Kurtz and her husband Craig and their children Alex and Carson; and Paula Nichols, all of Glendive; and Alison Meyer and her husband Jack and their daughter Zoe of Fort Wayne, Indiana; her brother John Colbrese and his wife Jackie of Billings; her sisters Francis Tomalino of Kalispell; Virginia Kurtz of Glendive; Janet Bjelland and her husband Dick of Billings; Shirley Bishop of Glendive and numerous nieces and nephews.
