Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Rudy was born on May 29, 1922 in Bloomfield, the son of Daniel and Lydia (Yoder) Nissley. He was raised and educated on the prairies & hill country around Bloomfield. Rudy was united in marriage to Mary Elizabeth Mullet on September 21, 1944 in Miles City, Montana. Soon after their marriage, Rudy and Mary purchased a farm in Bloomfield. They took great joy in raising their four kids there, making treasured memories of the ups, downs, and everyday moments of life. Visitors to the Nissley house couldn't miss the family's love for singing - Rudy, Mary and the kids loved to sing acappella hymns and gospel tunes. Songs that Rudy would carry in his memory all his life and a legacy his children would take special joy in passing down to their families as well. He had a knack for the harmonica, discovered on sunny afternoons along the creek bank with his brother Dave. He was a tough match in a round of horseshoes and enjoyed the laughter of a lively table game with family and friends on snowy evenings.

Rudy was preceded in death by his parents, Daniel and Lydia; wife, Mary in 2006; a son, Dennis; a daughter, Bonnie; three sisters Barbara, Kathryn, and Rosella; brothers Dave, Rufus, and baby Reuben. Survivors include his daughter, Arlene Jantzi and her husband Randall of Lebanon, Oregon; son, Thomas Nissley and his wife, Caroline of Bloomfield; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.
