August 28, 1943 - November 28, 2009

SIDNEY, MONTANA: Ruth Janice Gehnert, age 66, formerly of Glendive, Montana, passed away on Tuesday, November 24, 2009 at the Svarre Group Home in Sidney. Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 28, 2009 at the Zion Lutheran Church in Glendive with Pastor Avis Anderson officiating. Interment will follow in the Dawson Memorial Cemetery in Glendive. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive has been entrusted with the arrangements. Ruth was born on August 28, 1943 in Glendive, Montana, the daughter of Adam and Bertha (Opp) Gehnert. She was raised in Marsh, Montana where she lived until 1964 when the family moved their home into Glendive. Ruth was preceded in death by her father in 1969 and her mother in 1983. Following her mother's death, Ruth moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming where she lived in her brother Ruben's home. Each day, Ruth would catch the bus to Magic City in Cheyenne where she would spend her day completing various activities. She remained in Cheyenne until the Fall of 1986 when she returned to Glendive and became a resident of the Eastmont Human Services Center. In 1991, Ruth moved to the Svaare Group Home in Sidney where she resided until the time of her death. Ruth loved listening to and playing music on her accordion and guitar. Her favorite song being "You Are My Sunshine". She liked to tease, was always cheerful and loved her blue jeans. She was a perfectionist at heart and liked things to be done right. Ruth had many friends, but her special friend and the love of her life, was Ron Hall or as Ruthie would call him, "Ronnie". Ruth was preceded in death by three sisters, Lillian Glaser, Helen Erhardt, an infant sister at birth; one brother, Martin Gehnert and special friend Ron Hall. Survivors include one brother, Ruben Gehnert and his wife Sheila of Cheyenne, Wyoming; a sister-in-law, Evelyn Gehnert of Glendive; a brother-in-law, Mike Glaser of Dickinson, North Dakota and numerous nieces and nephews.
