

Sarah Jane Smith

June 11, 1922 - December 8, 2004

Sarah Jane Smith, age 81, of Glendive, passed away on Sunday, November 30, 2003 at the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care Facility in Glendive. Memorial services will be held at 11:00 A.M., Monday, December 8, 2003 at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Wibaux with Pastor Paul Peterson officiating. Interment will be held at 2:00 P.M., Monday, December 8, 2003 at the Sentinel Butte Cemetery in Sentinel Butte, North Dakota. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Glendive is entrusted with arrangements. Sarah was born on June 11, 1922 in Carlyle, Montana, the daughter of Tom and Essie (Roth) Quale. She attended country school at Carlyle. Her daughter, Linda Goodale, was born while living on the farm. In 1949, Sarah married George Hitchcock and they had two daughters, Wanda and Brenda. On November 17, 1966, Sarah married Harry Smith from Sentinel Butte. Sarah moved to the farm at Sentinel Butte. Sarah and Harry's passion became square dancing and they traveled all over the country together attending square dances. After Harry passed away, Sarah eventually moved from the farm to Glendive. She enjoyed dancing as a member of the Single's Club and still square danced at every opportunity. When Sarah wasn't working, you could find her at the Glendive Senior Citizen's Center where she enjoyed playing cards and visiting with friends. In April of 2002, Sarah moved into the Glendive Medical Center Extended Care Facility where she resided until her death. Sarah was preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, one brother, her son-in-law, Gordon Goodale and her special friend, Richard Jonas. Survivors include her daughters, Linda Goodale and Larry Melton, Wanda Crawford, and Brenda Sadorf and her husband Richard, all of Glendive; her stepson, Burton Hitchcock of New Jersey; four grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.
