

Sharon Brettin

May 9, 1939 - January 7, 2006

Billings, Montana; Sharon Gayle (Johnson) Brettin, age 66, of Billings, Montana formerly of Beach, North Dakota died Tuesday, January 3, 2006 at Eagle Cliff Nursing Home in Billings, ending her long, courageous battle with emphysema. Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 A.M. Saturday, January 7, 2006 in the Chapel of the Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home in Beach with Rev. Warren Maxted officiating. Interment will follow at the Beach Lutheran Cemetery in Beach. Silvernale-Silha Funeral Home of Beach is entrusted with arrangements. Sharon was born May 9, 1939 in Parshall, North Dakota, the daughter of Arthur and Alice (Storlie) Johnson. She was raised in Plaza, North Dakota and graduated from Plaza High School with the class of 1957. Sharon worked as a telephone operator for a short time in Plaza. She attended a stewardess academy in Moorhead, Minnesota, hoping to become a flight attendant. Sharon attended college off and on in Dickinson, North Dakota and later pursued a commercial art degree at Bismarck Junior College in Bismarck, North Dakota. Sharon met Cordie Brettin while attending a stewardess academy in Moorhead, Minnesota. They were married September 6, 1959 in Beach. After their marriage they lived in a boarding house owned by Cordie's parents before buying a farm outside of Beach. Sharon and Cordie had three children, Bradley, Curtis and Chilton. Sharon enjoyed oil painting, quilting, Crocheting, reading, cooking and baking and loved to play the piano and the organ. However, her grandchildren Jennie and Jorrie Brettin gave her the most pleasure in her life. Sharon was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur and Alice Johnson; her stepfather, Walter Swenson; her husband, Cordie Brettin and her sister Donna Sivertson. Sharon is survived by two sons, Bradley Brettin and his wife Deb of Ballantine, Montana and Curtis Brettin, of Boston, Massachusetts; one daughter, Chilton Brettin Knapp of Spokane, Washington; two grandchildren Jennie and Jorrie Brettin of Berthhold, North Dakota; one sister, Nadine DeWitt and one brother Larry Johnson. The family wishes to thank all of Sharon's care givers at Eagle Cliff Nursing Home and especially "Carol" at Big Sky Hospice for the love and compassion that they gave to Sharon during her long illness.
